

I HAVE NEVER KNOWN

In spite of the thinking of many of my brethren, I have never known:

1. A farmer who failed in life because he quit early enough to attend the Wednesday Bible lessons.
2. A farmer who became poverty stricken because he refused to plow on Sunday, but chose to go to worship.
3. A business man who ever lost his business because he closed on Sunday.
4. A person who was too tired to go to worship on Sunday, and, also too tired to go to work on Monday.
5. A Christian to ever be strengthened by engaging in recreation—when he should be worshiping God.
6. A person who was ever made better by staying away from the church services because they did not like the teachers, preacher, or someone else who was there.
7. A strong, spiritual Christian who neglected the assemblies of the church.

Beloved, think about the above, and let's RESOLVE to attend every service of this congregation we possibly can.

—Author Unknown